

NCC 2023
23 - 26 FEB 2023 // GUWAHATI

29th National Conference on Communications

The National Conference on Communications (NCC) is a flagship conference of India in the broad areas of communications, organized every year by the Joint Telematics Group (JTG) of the IITs and the IISc. It has become a regular forum for researchers, students and practising engineers to present and exchange ideas on the latest technological advancements and innovations. The salient features of this conference are well-planned pre-conference tutorials, technical paper sessions, plenary talks by experts, and industrial exhibitions. Over the last twenty-eight years, it has witnessed progressively larger participation of researchers both from Academia and Industry.

The Twenty-Ninth NCC will be jointly organized by IIT Guwahati, IIT Patna and IIT Ropar. The conference will be held offline at IIT Guwahati during February 23 - 26, 2023. The organizers welcome you to NCC 2023 to be held for the third time in the North East India on the bank of the mighty Brahmaputra.
