

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Have the dates for the rescheduled event been finalized?

Ans: No, as of now we are closely monitoring the situation. Any decision regarding the rescheduled dates will be taken only after the COVID-19 pandemic is under control. Any such update will be conveyed through the website, official Facebook page, and email.

2. Will the event structure change after rescheduling?

Ans: No, the basic structure of Research Conclave will remain the same. The invited speakers, however, may change subject to their availability.

3. Will the rescheduled event accept new submissions?

Ans: Any call for new submissions will be notified through our website and social media handles.

4. I have submitted an abstract for presentation during the event. What happens to my submission?

Ans: Participants who have received a notification of acceptance against their submission will be automatically selected for the rescheduled event. They do not need to apply again.

5. I have registered for one of the workshops. Will my registration be valid for the rescheduled event?

Ans: Machine Learning, Data Science and Intellectual Property Rights workshop registration will be valid for the rescheduled event. However, the workshop on “Shaping a Research Article” will be conducted, subject to the availability of experts from the American Chemical Society.

6. I have paid the fees for one of the events. Will I be reimbursed?

Ans: All the participants will be notified after the finalization of the rescheduled dates. If under any circumstances a participant is unable to attend the conclave on the rescheduled dates, he/she will be reimbursed the registration fees (excluding the payment gateway charges).

7. I have registered and paid the accommodation fees. Will I be reimbursed?

Ans: All the participants will be notified after the finalization of the rescheduled dates. If under any circumstances a participant is unable to attend the conclave on the rescheduled dates, he/she will be reimbursed the accommodation fees (excluding the payment gateway charges).

8. Am I eligible for reimbursement towards the loss incurred due to the cancellation of flight/train/bus tickets?

Ans: Research Conclave will not reimburse any loss incurred due to the cancellation of flight/train/bus tickets as the rescheduling of the Research Conclave 2020 has been unforeseen and unavoidable event due to COVID - 19. The individuals may contact the travel agencies in this regard.
